Your Matcha will be freshly grind & packed in our factory in Japan and shipped directly to your address, this is how we guarantee the premium quality & freshness.

Please note: The real Matcha is coming from Japan. In these days, many of the online shops, like Amazon and eBay sells low quality, Chinese Matcha on low prices and many of those are sold as Japanese. It's no surprise that when Japanese Matcha tea grew in popularity, China began to export its own version as Chinese "Matcha". However, the Chinese version, while much cheaper and more accessible, is not the perfect substitute for Japanese Matcha. You can read more about Matcha at Wikipedia: <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Matcha>

What makes the real Japanese Matcha tea popular are its quality & health benefits. The Matcha colour is more bright green, the taste is more complex and less bitter. Like the traditional Green Tea, Matcha contains a compound called "Epigallocatechin gallate" (EGCG), and its levels are typically much higher in Japanese Matcha.

Japanese Matcha is like wine, there are different quality levels. We offer five different quality levels (grades) and we call it A, B, C and D, E grades.

A, B, C grades are Ceremonial grades and D and E are the Culinary grades.

"A" is the Premium, highest quality Matcha available.

"B" is high quality Matcha

"C" is the normal quality

"D" & "E" grades are culinary Matcha, ideal for cooking, baking or as use as an ingredient.

In the Private Label Service we offer:
